

Art Extravaganza

Come join in on the fun while helping a great cause. It will be a night full of art and entertainment that will help homeless youth and the Casa Libre youth shelter. The Casa Libre shelter works with youth ages 12-17. The shelter provides unaccompanied youth with clothing, food and a place where they feel comfortable to live. By attending this Art Show you will not only have a night full of fun and entertainment, you will also be helping out the Casa Libre shelter to continue in what they do. The Art Show will be composed of live music, Art for sale, a silent auction of many items, a raffle and free food as well. Please join in on the fun, tell a friend bring a friend.
